

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF WEST VIRGINIA
AT CHARLESTON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

CRIMINAL NO. 2:18-00187

CHARLES WASHINGTON-ROBINSON

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

Pending before the court is defendant Charles Washington-Robinson's motion to continue the trial and all related deadlines for a period of at least forty-five days. (ECF No. 27). In support of defendant's motion and the need for a continuance, defense counsel states that he needs additional time for consultations with his client on discovery and related representation matters, due in part to being recently appointed to represent the defendant in this matter. The government does not oppose a continuance.

Because failure to grant the requested continuance would likely result in a miscarriage of justice, the court finds that the ends of justice outweigh the best interest of the defendant and the public in a speedy trial, see 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), and GRANTS the defendant's motion to continue. In deciding to grant the motion to continue, the court considered the factors outlined in 18 U.S.C. §3161(h)(7)(B) and found that the nature of the prosecution makes it unreasonable to expect adequate preparation for pretrial proceedings or for the trial itself within the time limits established by the Speedy Trial Act. The court further finds that failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.

Accordingly, the court hereby ORDERS as follows:

- I. Trial of this action is continued until February 26, 2019, at 9:30 a.m., in Charleston. Jury instructions and proposed voir dire are to be filed by February 19, 2019;
- II. All pretrial motions are to be filed by January 22, 2019;
- III. A pretrial motions hearing before the undersigned is scheduled for January 29, 2019, at 10:30 a.m., in Charleston;
- IV. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the time from the filing of the motion until the trial is excludable for purposes of the Speedy Trial Act.

The Clerk is directed to send a copy of this Memorandum Opinion and Order to counsel of record, to the United States Marshal for the Southern District of West Virginia, and to the Probation Office of this court.

IT IS SO ORDERED THIS 3rd day of January, 2019
